In sub-clause (d) of Clause (2) of Sec 23 of the Act provision has been made for the election of Presidents by voters of the first two kinds, following the policy laid down by Govt in para 4 of Govt G.O. 28/12/26 referred to above and it does not seem advisable to allow the rate payers to exercise this privilege.

~~under the law as it~~ and under Clause (4) of Sec 23, the Vice Presidents shall be elected by Councillors from among themselves but Govt may appoint a Vice President by name when they consider this necessary

Under Clause 12 of the new Town Municipal Act, the President of a Town Council shall be elected by the general body of Voters who so elected by post or by the Council and the post may in necessary cases appoint the President by name - As the President will be a non-official, there will be no Vice-Presidents -

For Mayor Municipalities, the provision in the existing Regulations is kept in tact

As regards post 12, the President shall be selected from among the members and may be
(a) appointed by post by name
(b) [illegible] appointed as
(c) elected by the body of the post so elected

The body of Voters for a Post will be more than for a Municipal area and the principle of Post election will involve a great deal of labour for a Post area as [illegible] whereas the Electorate may perhaps be looked upon when the question may be considered as to whether the system proposed may be adopted for this area. It is at present [illegible] Members of the Post area
